

one length per column, one per row: $\Omega = k^{L_x + L_y}$

opposite-edge equality propagates: one value per strand, $\Omega = k^{\#\text{strands}}$ integer alphabet: rows split (1 vs $\sqrt{2}/2$), one value per strand; $\Omega = k^{4L}$ ($4L$ strands)